

Application for Pro Bono Design Consideration

On occasion, Porterfolio, Inc. collaborates with non-profit organizations by providing pro bono graphic design services. If you are a legally registered non-profit organization with a socially redeeming mission, start the process by providing information about your organization and why you think graphic design can help. Note: Providing this information does not commit Porterfolio, Inc. to provide pro bono design services; it is simply a way to start a conversation to see if a collaboration makes sense!

To get the conversation started, please provide answers to the questions below. Feel free to include any other relevant information you think Carolyn should know about you, your organization or your goals.

NAME OF NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION:
